

Surgical Skills for Non Surgeons

Suturing & Wound Management for Paramedics– 1 day course

You will go home able to manage most Out-of-Hospital wounds

Basic to Advanced Skills using animal tissue (not foam)

Close supervision – to ensure you get it right!

Experienced tutors – directed by a consultant with Surgical & EM experience over 40 years and who also instructs on the RCS Surgical Skills courses

Course includes:

Principles of Wound Management

Correct use of Instruments

Knot tying

Wound Exploration & Visualisation

Tips for good suturing, incl facial wounds

No Touch suturing technique

OSCE style practice/summary

Feedback:

“New concepts to use which I will find very useful in practice” Adv Paramedic Practitioner

“Very open and inviting and an excellent top up for any ED clinician” EM Physician Associate

“Excellent day. Enthusiastic educator with outstanding knowledge & experience. Would highly recommend for aspiring ACPs/paramedics/ECs.” Trainee ACP Paramedic

“Excellent course. Feel able to tackle wounds I would have not done so in the past. Would highly recommend to all levels”. Paramedic

Information:

Venue: Alexandra Hospital, Redditch, B98 7UB

Date: As stated

Contact: Mr DWJ McCreadie FRCS FRCM

Cost: £275 (£245 for CoP members)

Includes: Food, materials & parking

CPD: 6 hours

dwjmccreddie@hotmail.co.uk

EMCEF100
www.emcef.com/emcef100.html